Revocation Shamans Death

I call to my sacred medicine spread that which aides me in understanding my infinite spirit. The healer's tools have been laid out in ceremonial fashion. I call to the four elements and bring their essence into my sacred healing space in equal co-creation with all sentient kind. I call to the ancestors of this medicine reading to bring communal balance with the words being manifested in the now. I call to the dreamers of the southern skies, our mediums to the innocence of our seven future generations. In this shamanic moment of no-time now I co-create this communal reading for all sentient kind living on earth now.

The shaman's death is the lesson of the now. It speaks of life, death and rebirth as a cyclical process of understanding who we were and who we are now. With every death there is a rebirth of the self. Some cyclical form shedding of the old self requires us to look at our habit patterns of life. Many patterns lead us out of balance with our needs. Often we confuse our needs with our desires. This is the nature of the shaman's death, to see how habitual patterns create shells we must learn to discard in this ever evolving dance of spirit life, balanced with real life. At times we take back old shells we discarded long ago just to feel safe and secure. This is the other teaching of the shaman's death. With the new requires new creation so the body is involved with the whole process of self-evolution. The body is what houses the skills and all habit patterns used to function with the holographic reality blending into our dreaming experience of belief.

The temporal people of the now are the only ones who have this experience of shedding and creating cyclical with Mother Nature. We the people of now have forgotten the detailed ways of our ancestors. So many of us have been brought up on the bosom of mass media. They don't know the truth of our bare feet touching the ground without the chatter of world entertainment in earshot. The songs of the birds in the jungles, the chorus of crickets or flocks of geese speaking their sacred words as they head in seasonal directions. How do we teach our people to let go of the tit that milks their knowingness from the very breath they breathe. We do this by creating a legacy of truth that our seven future generation ancestors can touch, feel, and know is future now... real.

To follow the sacred path of living the shaman's death daily is the greatest discipline one can teach themselves during these times of generational change. Look deep into the way you live your life. What can you do to make sacred something in your own belief system? What can you do each day to let go of fear, envy and jealousy or the three nags of shame, blame and guilt. See how we torture ourselves with perceived debt created by others. See how you can come to a cyclical process of letting go with the best of intentions so all that comes back to you is perfect synchronicities with Great Mystery.

I call to Great Spirit who lives within Great Mystery. You who is the source of sources, I call to you in this sacred moment of infinite reflection of who I am, and what I am doing in this temporal now. I call to your wisdom so I may see the humbleness of my position within my own soul family interaction, so I may nurture all my past and future generations with the wisdom of living in the now.

The red coral of the great oceans of earth mother have been held sacred by the indigenous peoples of all earth realms since the dawn of conceptual time. Red coral has been used to gauge all forms of time through the process of long-term nurturing and the lessons learned through allowing time to not effect the nature of our nourishing expression.

To nurture one's self is the greatest gift we can return to earth mother at this moment in time. By allowing healing to be a process and not an event we become the greatest wisdom of why red coral is the earth mothers blood teacher. Red coral is of earth blood. It is the link to her sacred heartbeat we all hear deep inside womb time long before we go through the forgetting of the birth canal. Red coral reminds us of the infinite nurturing in the placenta of the mother's womb. It also teaches us when we leave the womb, to experience. At birth a new sacred placenta of void energy encompasses us on our life walk. This new placenta is what we make sacred through the learning of what is in our DNA, our very blood that procreates our version of life on this world.

Red coral comes from the great water nurseries of life. The places the whales, dolphins and tunas go to spawn the seven future generations of earth life. We all share red blood on planet earth. It is the gift she gave us so union and communion can exist at all levels of creating within earth realm. Red coral of earths' water nurseries represent the very essence of nurturing womb time.

We the generations of the now time, bear the responsibility of acting in the now. The ancestors of the past gave us our traditions, cultures and esoteric practices for us to learn. For the future to exist in the now we must learn how to live in balance with the ancestors of the lands we live on, be it concrete jungle, urban sprawl or ancient forests. We are the ones who act in the now. For the future to exist we must nurture it with the passion spark. Each person will have an individual journey back into the natural way of life, our former experience will color our future experience and continue to co-create until we make a clear separation of conscious application of the sacred art of our daily life walk.

We all have earned the rites of passage through living on earth.

At this moment suspended in no-time, I choose to engage my natural rights as a sovereign born being born on earth mother through the natural way of the womb of a sacred feminine. I recalibrate all of my soul frequency to the natural way. By making that very choice you have earned the rites of passage into the next level of knowingness and wisdom link with the infinite soul. Each being on earth seeks their own way to connect to the infinite being they are. The process always comes to an understanding of scale and size in which our other self-works at. We walk the rites of passage and we finish the old. We do not fall back into the old ways self-deception and self-perversion of sacred living. By accomplishing the rites of passage means you must upkeep your continuous co-creation with earth mothers realms, it is your sovereign duty. We do this by our elemental connection to all that is. The 4 legged, the winged ones, the scaled and soft shelled, the birds, bees, ducks and dinosaurs all have a place in Great Mystery's plan.

I choose to control this moment of now to testify what is blatantly obvious to anyone who is not a forced evolutionary zealot, martyring their life force for ideological theory.

Promoting their own creations as the only creation in existence worthy of illumination.

I choose to sleep in the fires of great mysteries creation.

I choose to say no to any further co-operation with your corporation or corporeal manifestation of spiritual therapy of destiny or fate.

I deny all your carrot and stick wisdom.

I take back the stick as a form of power you perceive you have.

I am a fully unpredictable source incarnate function with no light body mechanics you can manipulate, duplicate or interconnect with.

Until you and all your collectives past, present and future become a signature frequency match for Union and Communion.

Shapeshifting my reality, shaping and forming the shapeless and formless.

I begin the universal hunt for all beings needing collective bargaining services with their collective.

That uses forced evolution as the means of civil interaction posing as natural order.

We bring back the meaning of life to all DNA light body nations who have been forced into service to a system designed to delay, deny or disrupt the natural co-creative evolution of a soul planning life times through a fetus in womb process of light manifestation.

I erase all assumed forms of tacit consent to any form of being creating forced evolution through the use of power distribution centers, accounting systems or any other means.

Esoteric or technological that precludes me from unlimited access to Earth Mother's Dreamtime energy.

Earth is a place of Freedom and Unity.

REVOCATION FOR SPEAKING MY AUTHENTIC TRUTH

I in this ever present moment choose to acknowledge MY MIGHTY I AM PRESENCE to uncover & reveal why I have issues speaking up normally.

I have a sovereign choice to challenge myself to hear my own voice & to heal my own traumas, so I may expand & explore who I am, what I am & how I dream this dream.

Within this power of now, I bring forth all sympathetic programmes & observe the webbing that connects to the parasympathetic.

I sever the connection between that which allows the bleed over of empathic information - for I have been overwhelmed by the energy & emotions of others, even before I am in their presence. The parasympathetic has created a programme of false precognition – the sympathetic has created a programme that feeds the parasympathetic empathic information – overwhelming my sympathetic presence.

I end this sympathetic & parasympathetic programme - I reduce them to zero minus infinity. I refill the void space of where they were with my creation, inspiration & dreams.

All past lives in which I felt betrayal, heartbreak or any other emotion that kept me away from fully loving myself.

I now remove them as signature frequency teachers of the I AMs of past lives. I now replace them with the I AM lifetimes of love, joy & happiness.

I connect my sympathetic & parasympathetic to my joyful lifetimes, those where I was an interactive interpersonal communicator with no limitations to speak my authentic truth.

I now acknowledge this & all dimensions, time streams, galaxies & universes & every memory from this lifetime in which I feared speaking.

I now transmute that energy of memory to creation, inspiration & dreams.

I remove the negative charge of polarity that the sympathetic & parasympathetic used to confuse me.

I am no longer in confusion I am in my heart space - truth being my authentic self – I now choose this as a moment of victory & spread it to all versions of myself.

I focus upon the future in the next setting I need to speak & call upon the power of now to leapfrog into that future to enter my I AM presence as authentic self-awareness – shattering the illusions in the empathic overload so I may be fully present in all future scenarios in which I must have to speak.

I simply call upon this moment of now to leapfrog forward in time with all these words I have said for I am the healed healer taking up the legacy of myself so that I may teach the future generations of what courage is needed to heal the self.

AHO

Dragons are elemental beings of Photonic Light created by the planetary sentients and then given Sovereign free will in a dream space of that Planet.

And with that Sovereign Free Will connected to that Planet they become elemental beings, and those elemental beings program the surface reality, so third, fourth, fifth, sixth, third, first, fourth, seventh dimensional creatures can interact over many several dozen different layers.

They are reality programmers and they are reality manipulators and they are our tools through DNA in which to manifest our own Sovereign level of reality, to have our own infinite space, and each and every person born on this world has that Sovereign concept within their DNA to reach into the elemental mind of Earth and have a Dragon, or elemental energy, dispatched to you so you can create your Sovereign level of reality with 100% contrast control, 100% contract control, on a Sovereign Free Will Planet in a Sovereign Free Will Galaxy that is a 100% Free Will Universe.

And we are sharing this hologram over many hundreds of layers and the Dragons are the Dreamweaver's.

They are the Land People.

They are the Ancients.

They are the Ancestors, because they were the spawned beings of this Planet. And there are Dragons of other planets as well too, such as Venus and Mars and Mercury and all the others.

Every Planet creates elemental Dragons, and that residual image is what is-, when we see in our dreams the giantess of Dragons, is because that is the description of how big their sentience is so that they can get their job accomplished.

Dragons are Multidimensional, multi-functional photonic beings of Light created from a Sovereign manifested will of planetary sentients, who has then been given the Soul codes of that Planet to travel from Planet to Planet, Star to Star, or to bring-, to go to new Planets and venture to new places to bring more Star codes Home, or to transfer children via spiritual vehicles from one section of the Galaxy to the other, or one section of the Universe over to another.

They support Soul commerce on the local planetary level as well as the Interplanetary, Galactic and Universal level.

At every scale of being of our reality and our Universe Dragons, and that expressive concept of everything that you can think that there can possibly be and more are that fundamental reality programming concept.

Elemental sparks of the Universal Creational Force so that we have ways for our DNA to interact with them so that we can continue to create reality and make known the unknown.

I in this now call upon my ancient past, present and future selves to bare witness to the removal of all photonic Light intent energy from any and all 3D matrix signature hijacked from me through deceit and malicious intent by corporate run government, banking system, media, religions.

I summon all DNA lineage ancestors who have learned the unity lesson of ink on paper signatures to seal all documents with global unity not hierarchical order.

I hereby declare myself the apex of hierarchical order, I AM king of my kingdom, a true authentic sovereign being in the now.

-Andrew Bartzis

I terminate all false matrices and illusions that are keeping This Aspect of My Self in THIS NOW from fully stepping into My Light and aligning with my SOUL's Passion, Mission and Purpose to Assist in the Shifting of Consciousness of This Magnificent Earth.

I came Here by choice and fully understand THIS.

I RELEASE ALL IMPLANTS, and INTERFERENCE across ALL THAT IS, known and unknown, which has interfered with my SOVEREIGN BIRTH RIGHT to FREE WILL, as per The Divine Blueprint Creation Laws which govern this Universe.

This is irrevocable and permanent in ALL that IS.

I call forth ALL aspects of MYSELF across ALL timelines, dimensions and realms, to unify HERE in this NOW as I choose, by The Right of Free WILL to WALK in HEART SERVICE for The Greatest Good of ALL on this Planet.

I Completely Heal and Seal ALL Aspects of My Self, known and unknown, from any further intrusion, as I am Sacred Incarnate Vessel of the Source of All That IS.

-Andrew Bartzis

I in the ever present co-creative moment of now. Choose to form a spiritual court of equity. So I may find the true signature frequency of remedy and resolve. This choice in the ancient present now.

I choose to form multiple overlaying spiritual courts of equity so the multi-dimensional selves can find remedy and resolve. I bring forth my entire universal Akashic record and offer it to all concurrent nonlinear spiritual courts of equity. With this baseline we begin the final process of separation of densities.

I call forth all sentient and non-sentient observers or interceders that operates within one, two or three degrees of separation of me. In these nonlinear concurrently running spiritual courts of equity

I summon all DNA lineage ancestors in full unity consciousness paradigm to bare sacred neutral witness in full multi-dimensional form of all entangled or un-entangled observers. We now all bare witness to this paradox of entangled and un-entangled observers meeting in this multi layered nonlinear concurrently running spiritual courts of multi-dimensional equity.

I hereby state in no-time that all observers directly entangling with my multi-dimensional selves must state to all ancestors in your authentic signature frequency what universal place of space time did your soul spark come into existence. This is your un-entangled proof you are not entangling with me. Your true source frequency of time. This is the final process of separation of density if u have no true source frequency of time you are not real.

I bring together all source time codes of all sentient non entangled observers, I make this the master codex of all spiritual courts of equity in communion and union with unity consciousness source time beings and collective consciousness creations.

The impact of geometrical shapes on human energy systems has always been universally recognised.

This awareness gradually disappeared, and our "modern" approach is to consider these ancient forms either as symbolic art without function, or attribute them to magical practices.

However, the benevolent magic that lies in sacred geometry can be used by any individual who can understand the simplicity of sacred geometry itself.

I deliver an immediate call on debt return for all my energetic investments ever. In any lifetime. During any of all my life-force harvests. As the apex of my DNA ancestry in the now and contract holder.

Any giveaways ever offered due to race amnesia or any other covert means due to the truth being hidden from me.

Are to be an association with my Consciousness Strike now and forever more.

Any of my power being employed for Domination and Control will no longer work in any way or form that is not in consent from this I am now.

No life force can ever be associated with any structure not in alignment with Earth Mothers true role in the universe free of the false grid structure harnessing her.

Preventing her in any way shape or form. I void it and demand its immediate return.

You have been served.

Your borrowing from me is over. For any lineage, on any level seen and unseen. Your irrational exuberance reliant on my life force is no longer supported.

I register you in the Akashic Record for immediate debt collection. From all celestial sources overdrawn. So remedy and resolve with the force evolutionary systems may occur now.

I begin the immediate liquidation and disintegration of all your seen and unseen assets. Thought constructs and ideological DNA theories.

I demand the instant gratification of all sweat equity endured in the preservation of all time space creations during the 4 un-creational paradoxes events you created.

I upload the entire database of universal karmic debt for the universal tax auditors to discover the totality of karmic violations. To discovered for the expressed purpose of remedy and resolve. So contract holders of violations in this moment to be triggered now for their part in resolving all karma.

As is the purpose of this reality for the harmony of the entire universe.

The hierarchical system has played it last hierarchal chess move. the game is over.

The Ponzi scheme has been seen in the unseen layers.

This fraud time system is now exposed to all light being manifestations as indebted servitude without end.

No power in association to the above stated amnesia power giveaway I have participated in will support the fraud time imposition anymore.

Most people's relationship with food starts with what was imprinted on them when they were kids.

It really matters who prepared the food: whether you are angry, happy, satisfied or angry.
Food is something that you can heal or kill with.

Depending on how and where your food was made, you can feel good or bad consuming it.

Knowledge of food is power.

If the recipe has Love inside, it will give you power.

We need to return to the alchemy of food and programing our food with Love intention!

-Andrew Bartzis

The moment we stop giving our power away, something Divine starts blooming in us.
We are part of holographic Universe of perceived Light.

Great understanding came from that one hour of observation of who you are Now-which is DNA,a technology that allows for higher strands of Knowledge/Knowingness to be accessed via integration.

This process is DNA change.This transfer of Lightbody imprint of Akashic record into the instance of Now...is quite similar to the classic"Matrix uploading sequence".
Attitude is vital to integration

Once the strand is integrated,Knowledge/Knowingness becomes available as any other memory.
The actual wave of integration represents an end/start of numerous cycles,from a few million to 12-15.000 years.

Once a Soul enters an existence through the Solar Portal,it leaves its Akashic record to be held in perpetuity of Truth upon Return.

What is coming now is the Universal record in Light which is what CERN alters.

Anyone can undo this front layer of perception deception through Density training-get into Light so dense that the darkness cannot take over.

If Heart center-heartbeat-is used,Light will be healing and its carriers will bring in Consciousness,Knowledge,and Information.

Allowing the Light transfer to happen into your DNA can bring LUMINESCENCE into your Being.

You would be "downloading Awakening"

It is simply a matter of CHOOSING LOVE FIRST
-Andrew Bartzis

I in the ever present moment choose to acknowledge that there is a curse based in ancestral lineage.

I was not born into this ancestral lineage.

Why is this debt being enforced on my Heart?

I order an audit of the source of sources, so there may be Zero balance on all dimensions, timestreams, galaxies, and universes.

I disconnect this wound from my Heart chakra, from my spinal column.

I return all energy that was used to create this wound and all energy that has been siphoned from me.

I demand that it be returned through this spiritual court of equity.

I am now.

I am not my ancestral debt.

I break all contracts, vows, and agreements with the reincarnation grid and I send my eternal love to all those still in the reincarnation grid.

I am the being of now.

I am a being of photonic Light manifested in these two legs.

I disconnect myself from all dreamtime societies that are based in betrayal.

I do not accept the projections of energies onto me from any other being who is not my DNA lineage brethren.

I ask that this be entered into the Earth Akashic record, so I have declared my I AM self presence.”

-Andrew Bartzis

I Choose to be My Self not a slave!

We are held hostage by those who are controlling this world.

Until to use that power of choice you must understand the passion to stand up and say:

NO NO NO,

-I will not be dominated by the forces of control

-I will take back My Power,I will take back My Inherited Rights,I will take back all the substantial Rights given to me by the Creator of this World,by the Creator of this Galaxy,by the Creator of this Universe,that is..the Power what we must invoke!

-I reclaim My Power and I do not allow you to have it!

-I reclaim My Sacred Feminine

-I reclaim My Sacred Masculine

-I reclaim My right to live on this world Free and not to be taxed to death from the point in which I came out of the womb.

Death is most detrimental thing of this world!

We are Incarnate not reincarnate Beings!

-Andrew Bartzis

When one can create a sensual experience, it does not allow the sexual energy to override, but allows a sense of touch to be expressed.

When a man touches a woman, there is an exchange of energy and the woman guides the energy so that the hand that's being moved by the man is being guided in a telepathic representation of the energies exchanged on the surface of the skin.

And it doesn't matter if you're gay or bi or lesbian, you are still a human being with the fundamental rules of a sensual experience, and the sensual experience is the exchange of heart based love, not sexual love from the sexual organs and the sexual energies.

And the sensual experience is what will lead into true equal experiences that will heal the divine masculine and divine feminine in such a way that they can break a lot of the reality programs that they have.

Our brother Maty Waller wrote his revocation,thank you Maty for reclaiming your Sovereignty!

"I call to all spiritual contracts that exist within my past present and future beings,selves and existences in this dimension and time stream and all time streams above and below the Earth centric sine wave of co-existence at this exact moment,in the ever present co creative now moment.

I summon all DNA lineage ancestors to create a unified proper court of spiritual equity.
I call forth the proper spiritual court of equity to hear my request.
I call forth all ancestors of all soul relations to hold space in this spiritual court of equity.
I call to Earth Mother and all her Light denizens within all inner and outer space to come forward and occupy this spiritual court of equity.

Great Mystery who is the source of all power,I call to you!
Come with your sacred synchronicity so all beings may hold space with Unity Consciousness.
I call to Great Spirit who lives within Great Mystery.You the power of Earth Mother manifested.
I call to your wisdom in this I AM moment.

I request the highest possible timeline for Earth Mother and all life upon her.
We can wait no longer.
I request the reunification of tribes and the reunification of Soul families.
I request the formation of the first pods,and invoke our highest mission

We are ready,We are the healers who have been called and we answer to that call.

We formally request the migration of souls onto Earth Mother to bring about the highest possible out come for all.

The time of the great awakening is now and we are in service.

I now state with full sovereign conviction that I AM now fully present in the mighty I AM SELF.
I declare from this point forth I now operate with a permanent spiritual court of equity.
I hereby declare that Earth Mother is now in dominion with me for all forms of interpersonal relations for all sentient kind existing and co existing on Earth Mothers realms.

I call forth all the ancestors to honour this reading of my free will and enter in into the Earth akashic record for all sentient kind to understand that our freedom comes with the use of free will at all times."

Matrix:

The training programs teach Neo the concept of "stillness," of freeing the mind and overcoming fear, cinematically captured in "Bullet Time". When Neo realizes, that the matrix is only a dreamworld, a reflective Neo silently and calmly contemplates the bullets that he has stopped in mid-air.

Notice as energy is flowing without blockages, only a stream of synchronicity flows.
Unwanted thoughts are usually symptoms of energy blockages.

Intuition is the Natural function of the Cosmic mind.
Intuition only feels vibrations of synchronicity seen and unseen.

When no mental idea arises, Intuition seems to flow freely.
In truth, Intuition is always tuned into the Cosmic flow yet often goes unnoticed or is simply ignored.

When the mind is Quiet, you know what feels right and go with that.
Life sheds Light on itself as Cosmic Light circulates freely.
-GH Team

So what is love?

Love is your overall reserve to remain in a reality, and as it gets eaten away slowly, slowly, in this reality by the loss of free will or the giving away of your power to certain situations or karmas, you found yourself unable to get yourself going because your gas tank is always empty and always empty.

And then love becomes an endurance battle versus this world, and that's what the big mistake in a lot of the light worker corporate teachings is, is you must be able to self-heal and self-nurture so that your energy patterns, your energy reserves, remain always above the empty because the vast majority of human beings are operating on the empty level of their gas tanks.

If they're lucky they get to put $5 of spiritual energy and go out and have a dinner and come home and they're back to, what, almost empty again.

And until they regularly self-heal, regularly self-nurture, they can be high dense beings but their frequency will have very difficult times of going high and thus why light worker beings, or light beings, find themselves doing lower density and lower frequency healing in working with the lower, denser beings to resolve karma.

Which is the other confusion of why light beings work with dark beings.

-Andrew Bartzis

Those who have targeted me in this time stream and matrix I put you now on permanent spiritual notice.

If your energy violates my I am presence in this matrix or any other matrix network you will be placed in a spiritual court of equity outside of this Universe so you may find remedy and resolve without my signature frequency as a teacher for your DNA lineage ever again.

I am putting all matrix personalities on notice of spiritual court of equity summons of truth.

Bring your petty lies and dictatorial comments to the Ancestors they will have infinite time to hear your words and exchange energy while you pontificate on false light philosophy.

Let the Ancestors teach you at the core of your being what true sovereignty is.

I can no longer entangle with you in any way shape or form until you have seen, accepted and integrated the common moral code of Unity Consciousness in the global dreamtime of Earths mind.

I call to all Soul shards of myself and others who have been forcedly entangled consciousness energy via Technology.

We now separate all Akashic record frequency from this matrix mainframe.

We dismantle all matrix components and sever all etheric connections that create a backup system of false Akashic truth.

And so be it!

-Andrew Bartzis

Our brother Máté Kovács wrote his revocation, thank you Máté for reclaiming your Sovereignty!
"I wrote this, this morning.

Hear my revocation planet Earth!
Hear it from my hearth!
Hear it loud and clear!
I stand!
And I won't be knocked down!
I claim my stand and stand my claim.
I am a severing full DNA lightbody that can not be manipulated or controlled in any shape or form!
I will have no mistakes about what I stand for.

I am love. I am Gaia. I am human and a natural being with full rights to be here and to express.
Any connection at any time or space I have ever had with domination and control is now to be removed, canceled and terminated once and forever more.

No tentacles of the domination and control may ever reach me in any way shape or form. I am free.
A free standing body of nation.
I govern my self.
I only want great mystery to take my hand in guidance and I let go of the hand of the false light with all of its false teachings.

I invite You great spirit in this great mystery.
I invite you in my life.
I invite cleanliness to my heart to my body to my energies.
I rid myself of the old and dirty, and I claim my place with the pure.
I love you great mystery.
May love spread to all the corners of your cosmos."
-Máté Kovács

It's a New day..a New week...a New Beginning

Once upon a time/no time people did not pick a flower without communicating with the whole bush telepathically,saying:

"-Is this all right,is this a good time for you?Because I will not do it if you do not want me to." And the flower usually would say:

"-Oh,just hold on...let me pull back my frequency a little bit so it does not hurt."

There was an open conscious relationship with Everything!

People in those societies did not feel lonesome...because there was a Love.

In this Moment of the Now the doors between the Worlds (Higher Dimensions of Existence) have opened.

This means that our perception can more easily observe the pure energy and the waves of Light.

We can touch this Realms of High Love frequency,vibration..Now we can regain the lost Kingdoms...It's NOW the Moment to make your dreams come true...choosing LOVE

Multidimensional reality is here.

Gaia with our spiritual teachers (Etheric, or Angelic brothers and sisters) rise consciousness and changing the Vibration and through Hyper-Aware people poured potential to humanity and all Earthlings.

In Now moment is a open doorways, an open sight view to other dimensions and realities of existence.

The power of the sacred geometry within you (and out in expansion) is the key that your subconscious need to unlock. Subconscious channel must be with out fear implant impact, you need to erase fears with Love-Thought, Love-Action.

You are a Researcher, Light Worker with ability to explore and maneuver through other worlds in Now moment and bring information back from multidimensional reality Now (in split second).

I AM king of my kingdom, a true authentic sovereign being in the now.

I AM a natural man living in the natural way on Earth Mother.

I ask this be entered into the Earth Akashic record so all will know FREE WILL
