Wealth and power will come in a positive manner when they learn to treat them wisely.

Taurus Jupiter Sign

Taurus Jupiter Sign

Jupiter in Taurus attracts good luck when they follow their nature of being generous and patient. They are practical and discriminating, and they like to jump right in and do things. They don't like risks, but appreciate the efforts of hard work. They do better if they have direction and clear goals to strive for. The results are what matter to them.

Taurus Jupiter is well-grounded and they enjoy being in nature. It renews them. They are good with children and animals. They are talented artistically and can create beauty all around them. They love luxurious surroundings, and want the comfort of abundance and security. They use all their senses to enjoy life. They have a great sense of humor, and enjoy the fine things in life.

Taurus Jupiter is stable, and usually uses their money and resources to benefit others as well as themselves. They can be a bit stubborn, but they have the ability to see the big picture as well as to build the empire they envision. They don't like to be pushed.

Jupiter in Taurus knows how to grow financial security. They are good in business and know when to push their luck just enough to make more. The more secure they feel, the luckier they are. They must learn not to overindulge if they wish their luck to stick with them. In fact, when Jupiter in Taurus attracts wealth and success, they need to use it wisely and generously so they continue to attract more.

Jupiter in Taurus has a green thumb, for more than just money. Even if they have never lived in the country, there is something pastoral about them. Their practicality and earthiness just makes them seem very rural... maybe the landed gentry is a good image. They are homebodies who appreciate the putting down of roots, especially if they feel the soil is rich enough to support them well.

Gemini Jupiter Sign

Gemini Jupiter Sign

Jupiter in Gemini finds their luck when they use their natural wit and curiosity. They are social butterflies, and this can benefit them greatly with new contacts and beneficial acquaintances. They are versatile, and can turn their hand at most anything. Their friendliness puts others instantly at ease.

Jupiter in Gemini is intellectually adventurous. They love to learn, and are generally open minded. They have the ability to see all sides to an argument, which can also be lucky for them in the end. They can remain neutral. They thrive in fast-paced, ever-changing environments. Their ability to absorb so much information helps them form their own good fortune, as the information could come in handy at any moment. They want to broadcast their ideas to the world, so they are perfect for careers in writing, music, performing, teaching or taking care of children. Ideas are their stock in trade.

Gemini Jupiter's ability to communicate well opens up opportunities for them that may be more challenging for others without their gift of gab. They are always interesting, even though they only know a smattering on each subject. They are restless, and it is difficult for them to focus on any task for long, even accumulating money. Intellectual status is much more important to them.

Jupiter in Gemini is gifted at multitasking. They are good with languages, too. Their cleverness is hard to overlook. They can find good fortune through teaching others, presenting ideas through lecturing or writing, and learning all they can. They may be involved in publishing, broadcasting, telecommunications or travel. They really enjoy traveling and learning new things. To become even luckier, they should learn to value the physical and emotional needs of themselves and those around them.

The biggest problem Jupiter in Gemini may face is juggling all the opportunities they have...they don't want to miss out on a single one!

Cancer Jupiter Sign

Cancer Jupiter Sign

Jupiter in Cancer attracts good luck when they are charitable, sympathetic and comforting. When they use their energy to save and accumulate, more comes to them. They are intuitive, and if they let these feelings guide them they will attract much good fortune. They should always use their imagination; it will help them succeed. When they are compassionate to others, it comes back to them.

Jupiter in Cancer has a gift at making people feel cared for. They can create a homelike environment anywhere. Whatever they turn their hand to grows or turns out well. They really know how to make the most of what they have. They have a talent for sensing the emotional currents around them and sensing when others feel vulnerable.

They are ambitious, and are led by their intuition and emotions. They are excellent at healing and caregiving. They can be very artistic, whether that is with traditional arts or with food or business. They have an excellent memory, especially for family and history. Security is very important to them. They are likely to build a nice nest egg through careful spending.

Jupiter in Cancer can have good fortune doing anything that deals with the home or food, such as catering, real estate or other related areas. They excel in anything where they nourish others in some manner. They may need some help overcoming moodiness or clinging to old values that no longer hold true. Cancer Jupiter is usually sociable and friendly. They do well with the public, and don't really hit their stride until they reach middle age. They usually have no problems attaining material success. When they share their ideas, it is usually a blending of their philosophies with their own personal experiences.

On the negative side, Jupiter in Cancer can become afraid of anything that is not familiar. They need to overcome this and reach out to those around them, whether they know them or not.

Leo Jupiter Sign

Leo Jupiter Sign

Jupiter in Leo attracts luck when they are generous and inspire others around them. They need to present themselves with dignity and sincerity, and try very hard to not let their ego get in the way. They prosper when they can be creative, such as in the entertainment field, or working with children or recreation.

Jupiter in Leo has strong opinions and beliefs. They can take it personally when others disagree with them. They are good at making their own opportunities and they do best when taking calculated risks confidently. They are drawn to interesting people, and can be quite memorable themselves.

Leo Jupiter must have a way to play. Holidays, romance and celebrations renew their spirit. They may have talents in the arts, drama, teaching or as a community leader. They shine when they are the center of attention, and come across as confident and cultivated. They are optimistic and enjoy a healthy constitution. They love to show off their status and wealth. People trust them.

Leo Jupiter may gamble too much, or be offended if they are not automatically accorded the respect and admiration which they feel they deserve. They can be a bit melodramatic and play to the audience a bit much, but this is why so many people love them. Their charisma brings them good fortune. The enthusiasm they show attracts success and attention wherever they go. Rejection just rolls off of them. They may tend to exaggerate.

Dignified and honest, Jupiter in Leo needs honor and social status to feel self-worth. Social importance means a lot to them. They have a good sense of humor. They are open to exploring new things. They are self-reliant, courageous and full of vitality. On the other hand, they may become extravagant, ostentatious and self-centered. They may make rash judgments. If they don't watch their weight, they may have issues with the heart.

Virgo Jupiter Sign

Virgo Jupiter Sign

Jupiter in Virgo is luckiest when they are honest, helpful, practical, orderly and pay attention to all the details. They do well in service to others, nutrition, and health.

Virgo Jupiter is a realist. They need to visualize results to feel motivated to go after them. They are not easily lured into scams. They don't like to take risks. While they need direction, goals and strong plans, they appreciate the results at the end.

Jupiter in Virgo likes a solid routine. It helps them feel productive and in harmony. They have high standards set for themselves. Disciplined and discriminating, Jupiter in Virgo can help others to refine their lives and live better. They have a sense of grace. They are known for lending a hand when it is needed. They are good at analyzing problems and puzzles.

Jupiter in Virgo is detail oriented, which can slow them down on large projects. They are cautious, practical and scientific. They may be rather cynical at times. This is definitely the person you want with you in an emergency, however.

Virgo Jupiter prefers the simple life. Their values promote the basics of life, such as honesty and hard work. They make great progress sticking to their morals and values. The fastest way to lose their good fortune is to take on more than they can handle. Their perfectionist ways can hinder them as much as help them. They can become overwhelmed if they are not careful. On the negative side, they may also become petty, overly critical and irritable.

They are talented with literature, science and technical skills. These skills help expand Jupiter in Virgo's world and bring them many opportunities. Their efficiency and focus can be difficult to get used to in some cases. They love to research and make excellent librarians. They appreciate education and want all they can get.

Libra Jupiter Sign

Libra Jupiter Sign

Jupiter in Libra finds the most luck when they are fair and treat others equally. Their natural graciousness and talents at promoting and mediating can often bring them many opportunities. They are intellectually adventurous and willing to learn. They are open minded and impartial. Because of this, they often are persuaded to change their minds through the arguments of others. They can also see all sides to an issue.

Jupiter in Libra does best in a team of two. They have a true gift for working one-on-one. They like things around them to be aesthetically pleasing. They can turn this into a career such as interior design, fashion or other artistic avenues. They are also good at entertaining, writing and public relations.

Libra Jupiter is idealistic, and they are attracted to those who share their views. Pairing up with people of like mind can enhance their opportunities and good fortune. They are very considerate of others and understand the element of compromise. They can be very persuasive. They have a strong sense of justice.

Jupiter in Libra loves people, and this will bring them much good fortune. Their natural diplomacy lets them interact with others and solve problems. If they can develop a strong sense of self, their luck grows stronger. This allows them to care less what others think of them.

They are humanitarians, and they lead dignified lives. If they can be creative and bring about beneficial social change at the same time, all the better for Libra Jupiter. They can then make everything harmonious.

On the down side, when Jupiter in Libra lets their ego get too big, they can be too optimistic, greedy, snobbish and overly condescending to those around them. If they can keep themselves in check, they are humorous, hearty and jovial. They like to explore new venues and opportunities.

Scorpio Jupiter Sign

Scorpio Jupiter Sign

Jupiter in Scorpio attracts good luck when they devote themselves to a project. They need to draw on their inner strength and use those magnetic powers of theirs to heal. By using their innate intuition, imagination and compassion, they are able to attract good fortune and a vast assortment of enriching life experiences.

Jupiter in Scorpio can see what is hidden. They have the uncanny ability to read between the lines and understand the reality of a situation. This can be turned to their advantage and help them succeed. This talent as well as their natural magnetism can be used to enrich their life. They can handle intense energy and turn it into a healing rather than a destructive force. They are excellent at empowering others when they choose to do so.

Scorpio Jupiter has an instinct for mysteries, sacred things, metaphysics, shamanism and sexuality, and all can be turned into a form of healing. They understand what it is to go through a spiritual death and emerge brand new. They are especially gifted in helping others through such strong transitions.

Jupiter in Scorpio can be very secretive and serious. They have a critical sense of judgment and a shrewd business sense. They are willing to dig down and get to the heart of a project, and this helps them succeed. They are uncompromising in their beliefs and views. They have a tremendous sense of faith in themselves and if unchecked, can exercise their will over others. They are farsighted and determined to succeed.

Scorpio Jupiter is passionate and intense. They understand that big projects are the same as littler ones, just with more numbers. They are anything but shallow. They attract good fortune through their intensity of emotion, though they will be even luckier if they learn to accept criticism and to be a little more open minded rather than skeptical.

Jupiter in Scorpio has a certain degree of social power. They often attract opportunities to learn business and money skills. They must learn the truth about anything they are interested in. They may become philosophical or be involved in the occult.

They can be clever, crafty and devious. They may wish to control others or accumulate power. These attributes also make good engineers, researchers, police officers, scientists or health workers.

Sagittarius Jupiter Sign

Sagittarius Jupiter Sign

Jupiter in Sagittarius attracts good luck as long as they are generous, tolerant and practice what they preach. They can be very inspirational. To do so, they just need to believe in themselves and their goals. Their natural enthusiasm should come through when they teach or learn new things, and they should be able to see the big picture. They are commonly interested in teaching, sports, publishing, education, travel and foreign cultures.

Their own opinions and perceptions are important to them, and they may take it as a personal affront if others disagree. They are good at making their own opportunities. When they tune into themselves, they can intuit what their next step should be. They are able to take these leaps of faith and succeed. They should be challenged to grow intellectually and physically. They love to compete. Sports are a good outlet for them.

Jupiter in Sagittarius finds that travel not only broadens the mind, it opens up doors of knowledge they may only have dreamed of. They are truly born under a lucky star, since this is Jupiter's natural home. It seems they can do no wrong...they always come out of it smelling like a rose.

Carefree and outgoing, Jupiter in Sagittarius enjoys making life better for others. They appreciate philosophy, religion and social issues. They have strong convictions. They spend freely, but they usually are prosperous so it equals out. They love to convert others to their beliefs. They are easygoing and good-natured. Success finds them wherever they are. They do not like routines.

Jupiter in Sagittarius can accept different points of view. Luck will follow them wherever they support their personal needs for growth and risk-taking. Travel and education also opens up opportunities for them. For the best luck, they need to remain open to others; both personally and with their beliefs. Becoming too dogmatic will turn their luck away. They have the potential to develop great wisdom.

Capricorn Jupiter Sign

Capricorn Jupiter Sign

Jupiter in Capricorn meets good fortune when they are ethical, mature and act with integrity. They are organized and disciplined, and their step by step approach generally brings them good results. They are practical and need to visualize the end results to achieve them.
